Other Policies

Please review these policies carefully as they are the terms of sale that govern your purchases from ITG. They set out your rights and obligations with respect to your purchases, including important limitations and exclusions. Your placement of an order at the ITG store constitutes your agreement that these policies apply to the order, so be certain you understand them before you place your order.

To learn about ITG's return and refund policy, please read below. Please note there may be limitations on your right to return and obtain a refund for products.

Return and Refund Policy

All sales are final. If you are not satisfied with your ITG purchase of a product, please contact us within 14 calendar days of the receipt of the product. If it is determined, at the sole discretion of ITG, that there are special circumstances that warrant a return, and you send it back to ITG unopened in the original box, ITG may offer you a refund based on your original method of payment. If approved, ITG will assess a 10% restocking fee on any unopened products, which must be packed in their original, unmarked packaging.

Sales to End Users Only

ITG sells and ships products to end user customers only. You may not purchase for resale. ITG reserves the right to refuse or cancel your order if ITG suspects you are purchasing for resale.

If you have purchased a product from us with a credit card, we will only communicate to your financial institution that information required by them to complete the transaction. We also promise to conduct that transaction by means of industry-standard Secured Web servers.

We promise to only use your information to keep you informed of updates to products you have purchased from us or to let you know of new products that might be of benefit to you. If you do not wish to receive this information, just let us know by e-mail, postal correspondence, or telephone.

We further promise to store your information in a safe and secure manner.
